Back to the Future of Transportation: How will we get around Hartford? Monday, Sept. 10

How does transportation shape our lives and environment? How has it impacted Hartford's development? How will you navigate the city in the future? Join in on conversation about the past, present and future of transportation in Hartford. Thomas Maziarz, Chief of Policy and Planning at the Connecticut DOT will discuss the agency's priorities and projects, including the CTFastrak Project. Author of Post Roads and Iron Horses Richard Deluca as well as BikeWalkCT board member, Christopher Brown will join moderator Christine Stuart editor of CT News Junkie for this program.
